ADDITIONAL MATERIAL

Please attach, or promptly provide, documentation from your medical provider describing the disability, the medical diagnosis, and suggested accommodations. Information provided by the medical provider will help us assess this request and identify appropriate reasonable accommodations. If you do not have medical documentation available or need to undergo a medical examination one may be provided at the University's expense. In addition, Boston College reserves the right to affirm and review medical information provided by your medical provider and/or physician and may conduct an independent medical evaluation at the University's cost.
