

INSTITUTE FOR LAW AND PUBLIC POLICY

BOSTON COLLEGE LAW

“There's always a higher priority, always a reason not to do something. The thing about this particular population is that there's no one really huddling up for them and making sure things are taken care of.”

4

Adam Zwetchkenbaum Meaningful Work

There's always a higher priority, always a reason not to do something. The thing about this particular population is that there's no one really huddling up for them and making sure things are taken care of.