

Daniel J. Lasker, Norbert Blechner Professor of Jewish Values at Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, is the 2010-2011 Corcoran Visiting Chair at the Center for Christian-Jewish Learning. Prof. Lasker has numerous publications in the fields of Jewish philosophy and theology, the Jewish-Christian debate, Karaism, the Jewish calendar, and Judaism and modern medicine. His most recent publications include From Judah Hadassi to Elijah Bashyatchi: Studies in Late Medieval Karaite Philosophy

World.

In addition to his research activities, Prof. Lasker's contributions

"Are We Living in a Post-Polemical Era?"