OPEN LETTER TO HIS HOLINESS POPE BENEDICT XVI

*In the Name of God, the Compassionate, the Merciful,
Do not contend with people of the Book except in the fairest way (The Holy Qur'an, al-Ankabut, ١٨ : ٢٩).*

Your Holiness,

September th , we thought it appropriate, in the spirit of open exchange, to address your use of a debate between the Emperor Manuel II Paleologus and a “learned ifdf

as a counterexample. To say that for Muslims “God’s Will is not bound up in any of our categories” is also a simplification which may lead to a misunderstanding. God has many Names in Islam, including the Merciful, the Just, the Seeing, the Hearing, the Knowing, the Owing, and the Gentle. Their utter confection in God’s Oneness and that There is none like unto Him (al-Ikhlas :) has not led Muslims to deny God’s attribution of these qualities to Himself and to (some of) His creatures, (setting aside for now the notion of “categories”, a term which requires much clarification in this context). As this concerns His Will, to conclude that Muslims believe in a capricious God who might or might not command us to evil is to forget that God says in the Quran, Lo! God enjoins justice and kindness, and giving to kinsfolk, and forbids hucnhjpknoTjTdkoxk*JprrJpkcr*JhckJhpopmqconbwcsJkrjkhlmInTj*TDucjhmjpmqrplkjbwcs*Jkrjkhlml
